

FUGITIVE FROM JUSTICE HIRES
FARM LABORER

Man from England Arrives to Take Position Offered
by Geo. Luff

TRYING TO FIND WORK

Was Not Aware of Predicament in Which Employer is Now Entangled

As the passenger train from Winnipeg pulled into the depot on Monday afternoon, Mr. H. C.
King was approached by a man who had journeyed from some city in England. Wainwright was his destination and in the vicinity of this town he intended to work. On enquiry, Mr. King learned that he had been hired some time ago by George Luff to work on his farm northwest of here.

The newcomer had not learned of Luff's recent actions, and was not aware of the fact that the man who had hired him was a fugitive from justice. An effort is now being made to find work for him, however, and, when it is considered that he has his wife and five small children with him, it is readily seen that he needs work and needs it badly. He and his family have been given temporary quarters in the Immigration Hall.

MADE-IN-CANADA
TRAIN WILL VISIT
HERE JUNE 25TH.

Representatives of Eastern Firms to Make Tour of West.

No doubt many have learned already through the Western press something about the Made-in-Canada exhibition train tour. This travelling National Exhibition will be in Wainwright, Wednesday, June 25th. It will consist of twelve cars, containing exhibits of the products of a number of representative Canadian industries, which will be arranged as attractively and compactly as possible.

Representatives of the firms exhibiting will be on the train, and all will be glad to learn of the natural resources and other advantages of this town and district for manufacturing. It will then be seen that the exhibition of and various features in connection with it will be thoroughly in accord with the policy of encouraging industries to locate in this district.

The whole exhibition and the illustrated lecture will be free, and there is no question that the train will be one of the most novel attractions that has ever visited this town. It should prove of great educational value to those who view it.

EXPERIENCED HARD WINTER

Mr. Wm. Cain, a pioneer rancher in this vicinity, who is now located at Meadow Lake, north of Lloydminster, was in town this week. Mr. Cain reports having experienced the coldest and hardest winter in recent times. The snow was four feet in depth.

Dr. Little has almost completely recovered from his recent illness. He was in town last week and was welcomed by a large circle of local friends.

IDEA SHOULD BE DISCOURAGED

Everything possible should be done to discourage the idea of holding Wainwright's annual sports on the same date as that already set apart for the agricultural fair.
There are numerous reasons why this should be done, and the chief argument in its favour is the negative effect of not celebrating on July 1st.

Since Wainwright's inception, Dominion Day has been observed by the people of this town and neighboring towns and villages have surrendered this date for the simple reason that July 1st is a public recognition of Wainwright's natal or birthday.

Furthermore, it is obvious and only natural that September 19th should be devoted to exhibition and show purposes entirely. Officers and directors of the agricultural society are opposed to any infringement on their day.

Some steps should be taken by the board of trade to see that July 1st is celebrated here as in former years and the action of its members in this respect will stand as a credit to them.

COMMISSIONER HERVEY
MADE HIMSELF CLEAR
ON BUFFALO QUESTION

Admits that in the Event of Removal Agitation Being Continued Wainwright Gate to Buffalo Park will be Closed and Main Entrance will be Made from Line of C. P. R.

During the course of the next three weeks, two buffalo will be shipped from the local park to the Dublin, Ireland, zoological gardens. These animals are the gift of the Dominion government to the city of Dublin.

Commissioner of Dominion Parks, Mr. P. C. B. Hervey, was here last week and with the assistance of Supt. McTaggart rounded up about fifteen animals, from which five were finally selected. Two will be chosen from this number and before July 1st, will be shipped to Ireland by express.

Who will accompany the animals to the Old Country is not known at this time.
Whether it will be a local party or one of the numerous other applicants is something that remains to be seen.

While here, Mr. Hervey handed out some very plain talk to the STAR, and the agitation and the part played by this publication in regard to the removal of the buffalo and the throwing open of part of the reserve for homestead entry.

Mr. Hervey was of the opinion that all the citizens of Wainwright had to do, if they wished to kill their town, was to continue the present agitation for the removal of this reserve.
He stated that in the event of this being continued the probable action to be taken by the Dominion government would be to close the Wainwright gate and open another on the line of the C. P. R., south of here.

PAPER ON ODD FELLOWSHIP

All local Odd Fellows and visiting brethren are invited to attend next Monday night's meeting when Brother H.
Irwin, P. G., will read Dr. Gordon's (Ralph Connor) sermon on Odd Fellowship. The paper will be interesting and instructive.

IS BUILDING RESIDENCE

Contractor P. D. Laird has resumed building operations on his new residence opposite the Methodist Church and states that he will have it completed in a few weeks. The design is an attractive one.

ANXIOUSLY WAITING

The STAR is anxiously awaiting the announcement from the board of trade that July 1st, will be celebrated here, so that a screaming headline of "Celebrate July 1st in Wainwright" may be printed across the top of the front page.

BACHELOR'S MAY GIVE BALL

There is some talk at the present time of another dance being given by the bachelors in the near future. In the event of satisfactory arrangements being made, Lynch's orchestra of Edmonton will be in attendance.

LOCAL TENNIS CLUB

A local tennis club has been formed and already has a large membership. Mrs. Gorow is president; Mrs. A. E. Mills, secretary and Mrs. W. S. Clark is treasurer of this organization.
The green at Rev. Thos. Phillips residence will be used as a court.

GUN CLUB COMPETITION

Arrangements are now being made by gun club teams, representing the G. T. P., and the town, for a competition to take place in the near future.
There is keen rivalry between the town and railway members, and a lively competition is assured.

IS STEADILY IMPROVING

Mrs. H. C. King, who is at present confined to the Alexandria Hospital in Edmonton, is improving steadily and local friends will be glad to learn that she will be around again shortly.

THOSE MATRIMONIAL EVENTS

From numerous rumours, following up a news item last week to the effect that several matrimonial events would be solemnized in the near future, it is probable that June brides will be more numerous than at first anticipated.

PRESBYTERIAN ASSEMBLY

Rev. A. Russell and Dr.
McQueen, accompanied by their wives, will leave here about May 24th, for Toronto, where they will attend the annual session of the Presbyterian General Assembly. They will be absent about a month.

WEEKLY DANCE TO-NIGHT

The weekly dances being held on Wednesday nights after the last picture show are proving exceedingly popular, as evidenced each week by large attendances. Another of these informal dances will be held tonight.

WILL STORES TAKE HALF-HOLIDAY IN SUMMER MONTHS?

Matter is Now Being Considered by Town Council.

Unless the Alberta Early Closing Act stipulates otherwise, a by-law will shortly be introduced by the town council to provide for a public half holiday every Wednesday afternoon during the months of June, July, August and September.

A short time ago, the board of trade circulated a petition among the businessmen as a test of the feeling in this respect and it was signed by almost every single merchant.
In the event of the Alberta act, respecting holidays, not conflicting, a by-law will be submitted to the people at no far distant date.

It is to be hoped that this popular request will be looked into by the council immediately and that a by-law will be in vogue not later than June 1st.

LAND NEAR BIGGAR
HAS NOT BEEN RE-SERVED FOR PARK

Instead of Moving Portion of Herd $25,000 will be Spent in Improvements on their Local Abode.

It now transpires that there is absolutely no truth in the report that three townships have been reserved by the Dominion government in the vicinity of Biggar for a portion of the buffalo in the National Park here. The report was first circulated here by Biggar men, but for what reason it was started is not known. Instead of moving a part of the herd, it is now stated that a large expenditure has been appropriated for the improvement of the Wainwright park and it is definitely known that this amount will be at least $25,000.
Those who support the buffalo park here can lay aside all fears of losing part of these "hairy monsters", for there seems at this time to be small likelihood of Wainwright being relieved of this unjust burden.

VISITORS FROM PICTON, ONT.

Mr. Byron Hyatt, of Picton, Ont., arrived here recently and is now visiting his daughter, Mrs. S. R. Bowerman. Mr.
Hyatt was accompanied by Miss Nellie Mills, who is a sister of Mr. S. D. Mills. Miss Mills is visiting Mrs. D. M. Hyatt.

Mrs. A. E. Mills had the misfortune at the club dance on Wednesday evening last to lose a bar pin, with a small diamond in the centre. The pin is highly prized by Mrs. Mills and a reward of $5 is offered for its return.

CRICKET CLUB POPULAR

The newly organized cricket club is proving popular and no less than forty members have already joined. A pitch will be located for practices near the yard of the Wainwright Lumber Co. and for match games the athletic grounds will be available.

Miss Myrtle Brock, who has been in the town for sometime past, and who was on the STAR staff for a few weeks, left on Monday for Biggar to visit her sister, Mrs. Ben Covey.

Mr. E. T. McDowell, of Irma, was a visitor here on business on Monday.

MOTHER'S DAY
SERVICES WERE WELL ATTENDED

Appropriate Texts Chosen for Services by Presiding Pastors.

SIGNIFICANCE OF DAY

Simple White Bow Represented Everything for which Mothers Stand

"A mother's love—how sweet the name!
What is a mother's love?
A noble, pure and tender flame, Kindled from above.
To bless a heart of earthly mold,
The warmest love that's ever grown cold—This is a mother's love."

The real significance of the verse printed above was beautifully and interestingly shown in the special service at the Methodist Church on Sunday, which was devoted to and observed throughout Canada and the United States as "Mother's Day". The pastor for the afternoon service at the Methodist Church was Rev. R.
J. Rice and his impressive sermon-lecture on Mother and the Home was appropriate to his practical text,—"The hand that rocked the cradle is the hand that rules the world".

At this service, a large number of Mothers and children were in attendance and the numerous white ribbons and emblems of Mother's Day, were typical of those attributes for which mothers are loved and respected. Purity, beauty, love, charity and fidelity were represented by a single white bow. Brief addresses on Mother's Day topics were given by D. M. Hyatt and S. D. Mills, Superintendent of the Sunday School.

The evening service was in charge of Rev. Thos. Phillips, his text being selected from John 19-27,—"Behold thy Mother".
His sermon was equally as impressive as that for which the afternoon congregation assembled and thoughts of mother were again uppermost in the minds of those who heard him.

Although this is the first occasion on which Mother's Day has been observed here, its recognition by a special service has found a place in the hearts of all local people who were fortunate enough as to worship with the presiding pastors at Sunday's services.

Mr. Bert Turner, formerly in the employ of the G. T. P. here, was married in Regina a short time ago to Miss Alice Minnie Rushton, late of Handsworth, Birmingham, Eng.

Local friends have received word from Banff to the effect that Mr. H. V. Fieldhouse, who is receiving treatment at the hot springs there, is considerably improved.

Mr. W. J. Francis, a well known Winnipeg newspaper man and advertising agent, was here recently on an advertising scheme to do with hotel regulation cards. While here he made numerous acquaintances.

Constable R. E. R. Webster, of the R. N. W. M. P., spent a few days in Wainwright this week on work in connection with his duties.

Mr. M. G. Lines, of Hope Valley, has returned to his locality after a trip, extending over a period of several months, through the western American states.

FREIGHT SHIPMENT
ARRIVED IN THIRTY
HOURS FROM PEG

This is Probably A Record Shipment Over
G. T. P.

A carload of shelf and heavy hardware was unloaded yesterday by Messrs. Munson & Ross.
This particular car, 307049, was delivered to the G. T. P. by the C. N. R. at Winnipeg on Sunday morning and arrived here Monday night.

Mr. Ross is rightly of the opinion that great credit is due the G. T. P. for the very satisfactory manner in which this shipment was handled and for such rapid transit from Winnipeg. Ten hours more than the time taken by the passenger were required to deliver the car.

South Wainwright People Say They Will Improve their Property Soon.

In response to a letter of inquiry to the National Townsite & Colonization Co., re—the improvement of their South Wainwright property, the STAR is informed that the reason for the delay in the erection of houses and the grading of streets is the fact that Mr.
McCormack, the manager, who is well known here, has lately undergone an operation. This work was in charge of Mr.
McCormack, so the letter goes on to state. "Until he recovers, the company will endeavour to start construction at no far distant date. In closing his communication to the STAR, the Sales Manager writes as follows,—"In the meantime, we are doing everything possible re—this construction. We assure you that we may be a little late, but that the work will be completed this summer."

Numerous local enquirers who have asked about the commencement of this work can judge for themselves from the above communication.

The Edmonton businessmen will make their annual trip over various parts of Alberta early in July. Secretary Fisher of the Edmonton board of trade is now making all arrangements.

Mrs. Stewart, of Prince Albert, is visiting her brother, Mr. W. E. D. McTaggart. She is accompanied by her daughter, and will remain here for a few weeks.

The secretary of the local Cricket Club has recently received several letters from clubs in Edmonton and Saskatoon with a view to playing match games here in the near future.

Medical Health Officer Dr.
Middlemas inspected the two local dairies on Monday and with few exceptions found things in good order. Periodical inspections will be made in future.

POOL ROOM FOR MAIN ST.

The Richardson building on Main Street is being renovated for a pool room, tobacco store and barber shop and work on it is progressing at a favourable rate.

VISITED RELATIVES HERE

Mr. Jason Belcher, of Windsor, Ont., was a visitor here with his sister, Miss O. Belcher, for a few days last week. He was accompanied by Mr. Bert Kellington, of the same city.
They will locate in Edmonton.

SCHOOL BOARD
MADE ANOTHER
SHREWD MOVE

Services of Former Principal of School Have Been Acquired.

WILL STAY UNTIL JULY

Is Preparing Advanced Pupils for the Terminal Exams.

By some unexplained turn of good fortune, the school board has been able to engage the services of Mr. W. J. McLean, former principal of the school here, until July 1st.

It has been previously reported on different occasions that Mr. McLean was slated for a position on the inspector-of Education for this province and it now transpires that certain new districts will not be opened up until after the midsummer vacation. When these new districts are formed, Mr.
McLean is assured of an inspec-torship.

The school board found such a course necessary on account of the school being overcrowded and the impossibility of Principal Black and his assistants to efficiently discharge their duties.
Mr. McLean will preside over certain important subjects in the advanced grades and is preparing older students for the forthcoming terminal examinations.
Chairman Dawson and other trustees in charge of Wainwright's educational affairs are to be congratulated for having secured Mr. McLean's services at this critical time.

AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY WILL MEET SATURDAY

A directors meeting of the Agricultural Society will be held on Saturday afternoon in the sample room of the Wainwright Hotel and it is especially requested that a full board is present. The meeting will be held at 2 p. m. sharp. Matters of importance will come up for consideration.

Officers and directors plan to make the 1913 fair, which will be held on September 19th., a success from every standpoint.

TRANSFER OF LAW PRACTISE

Mr. Robert Hunter, who has been connected with various legal firms throughout Western Canada, has taken over the law business heretofore carried on in this town by Mr. H. V. Fieldhouse.

Mr. Hunter is a young man, who comes to Wainwright with the highest recommendations from towns where he has practised. He has already been engaged by the council as the solicitor. The insurance, loans and real estate end of the business which was formerly in charge of Mr. Fieldhouse will be conducted by Mr. V. E. Graham.

Mr. Fieldhouse, who is now at Banff regaining his health, will likely go farther west and may locate in Vancouver or Victoria. In the course of a few weeks he will return here to remain until July 1st.

Mrs. P. E. Ross, who returned here last week after a very successful operation by Dr.
Smith at the Royal Alexandra hospital at Edmonton, is doing as well as could be expected.

Don't fail to read the advertisement on page eight of this issue from M. E. Henry. There is something to interest you.

TRUSTS THRIVE
UNDER FREE TRADE

New Combines and Monopolies Have Grown in Britain the Greatest Free Trade Country

It is often asserted in Canada that protection fosters combines and that a country enjoying free trade is exempt from the evils of monopolies and trusts. Several economic writers have investigated this question in Great Britain and their reports have been made public in various periodicals. One of these writers, Mr. H. W. Macrosty, says in the Contemporary Review that in 1899 single amalgamations, while not entirely excluding competition controlled the iron, cotton, thread, salt, alkali, and rubber tire industries in Great Britain. In many cases where an actual consolidation had not taken place there was an agreement to maintain prices. In Birmingham 500 employers and 20,000 workmen were working under agreements to maintain prices, which were fixed by committees after examining the conditions of manufacturers. Mr. E. J. Smith, the author of the Birmingham scheme of trade combination, said in January, 1905: "It was first adopted seven years ago in the metallic bedstead trade, and has been so successful in that industry that the trade is to-day one of the most envied in the country. Since then it has been copied by the makers of spring mattresses, cases, tubes, spun mounts, rolled metal brass wire, metal tubes, iron and brass fenders, china, furniture, electrical fittings, pottery ware, common building bricks, and iron, brass and electroplated coffin handle plates, and ornaments. Amongst other manufacturers, who are taking it up are the makers of jet and Nottingham wares (potteries) galvanised hollow-ware, and brass and iron pins."

Many Consolidations
"There is no open market in salt-mine, nickel, mercury, lead pipes, fish supply and petroleum," said Mr. Macrosty. "Steel and iron rails are controlled by a ring. All the largest paper mills engaged in making newspapers have just consolidated their interests into one large combination. In the engineering trade twenty-four firms have a subscribed capital of £1,545,000. In 1897 Armstrong & Company absorbed Whitworth & Company, raising their capital to £2,110,000 in the process. The merging of 1897 Vickers & Company, the armaments manufacturers, bought up the Naval Construction and Armaments Company, and later they acquired the Maxim-Nordenflett, Guns and Ammunition Company. Now they boast of being the only firm capable of turning out a battleship complete in every respect." The firm of J. & P. Coates of Paisley, after being formed into a limited liability company for the manufacture of sewing thread with a capital of £5,510,000, absorbed Kerr & Co. of Paisley, Clackwell & Company of Bolton, and Jones, Brook & Company of Mellingham, the capital being raised to £10,000,000, on which a dividend of 50 per cent. is being paid. In December, 1907, the English Sewing Cotton Company, consisting of 15 amalgamations of fifteen firms, was floated with a capital of £2,000,000. Messrs. Coats took a large amount of the stock and it was thought that this would lead to an amalgamation with the great Paisley combination. In 1899 the new firm absorbed the Glasgow firm of R. E. & J. Alexander with a capital of £475,000. Seventeen firms of cotton spinners, mostly in Manchester and Bolton, had combined under the name of the Fine Cotton spinners' and Doublers' Association, Limited, with an immense capitalization. The Bradford Dyers' Association, Limited, is another combination which in 1899 embraced twenty-two firms with a capital of £4,500,000 and employing 7,400 men. As a result of a recent amalgamation of several coal companies one combination employed 12,000 men, and an attempt had been made to consolidate all the coal companies. In the distributive coal trade W. Cory & Sons, Limited, formed by the union of eight large firms, handled 8,000,000 out of 8,000,000 tons of coal that reached London by sea in 1899.

Small Man's Struggle
In the retail trade the small man has a desperate struggle to retain a footing. Great department stores know, as universal providers are crowding out the smaller stores. The joint stock system has spread to the distributive business. The capitalization of trading companies in the grocery, provision, meat and drug trades originated in 1897 was over £15,940,000 and the movement has since been accelerated. One well-known retail provision company has a capital of a million pounds and another of two and a half million pounds. These large firms succeed by setting up branches in both town and country, so that nowhere is the private shopkeeper secure from their competition. The prospectus of Lipson's Limited

Expected that 100,000 Visitors will Attend—Closing of Entries $40,000.00 is offered in Prizes and Purse at the forthcoming Saskatoon Industrial Exhibition to be held August 5, 6, 7, 8, in addition to a splendid display of Live Stock and Industrial Exhibits. The best program of attractions ever seen in Canada west of Toronto has been provided. It is expected that fully one hundred thousand visitors will attend the Exhibition. Almost everyone will be interested in the daily flights of Glen L. Martin the famous Birdman who made such sensational flights last year. Arrangements have been concluded with the T. W. Hand Firework Co. of Hamilton, Ontario for the most magnificent display of fireworks ever seen in Western Canada, to say nothing of the music and other attractions which are the best that money can secure. Prize Lists are now ready and can be had on application to the manager, David Douglas, City Hall, Saskatoon. Entries for all departments close July 28th.

WHAT THE STATISTICS SHOW
Statistics go to show that for each person permanently leaving Wainwright during the past year ten newcomers have located in the town to take his place. This would indicate that Wainwright's population is certainly not on the decline.

Mr. J. G. Clark, of Clark Manor, was a business visitor in town on Monday.

WAINWRIGHT ALTA. WEDNESDAY, MAY 14th 1913

NO definite steps have as yet been taken by either the town council or any local company to investigate Wainwright's gas possibilities and this state of affairs is surely to be regretted. After such favourable reports as those already submitted by experts, it is a pity that these steps are not being taken to either prove or disprove the assertion that the town is underlain with gas-producing strata.

The chief difficulty seems to lie in the problem of financing such a project. To drill to a depth of even 1,000 feet would require a working capital of about $10,000, and in the event of the first well proving dry, it would be desirable to sink another.

THE COST OF DRILLING FOR NATURAL GAS It will then be seen that the company would require a capitalization of at least $20,000. On the other hand, even though every evidence of gas was given in the first well, and obstacles were encountered that would not permit of the drills going deeper, the work would have to be abandoned and started anew.

It is almost certain that the action of outside companies must be awaited, who will take the chance of striking gas at any normal depth. In the meantime, gas enthusiasts must be satisfied with the mere prospect of discovering natural gas in this locality.

THERE is a feeling among certain people, included in whom are several staunch liberals, that it is now the duty of Mr. H. Y. Pawling to carry out, so far as in his power lies, his pre-election promises in respect to the construction of a court house and the establishment of a judicial centre at Wainwright.

That Mr. Pawling promised this from the public platform cannot be gainsaid. If, as reported, he stated that this would be done only in the event of his election at the polls, what are the people to infer? Surely they will be deceived in what the past has always shown of Mr. Pawling's efforts for the progress of this town and district.

To at least make an effort along the line of his promises would certainly display something to be admired in Mr. Pawling, after his defeat at the hands of the electors, but in

MR. PAWLING'S PROMISES TO THE ELECTORS order to clear himself and uphold his record as a public man it is obvious that he must make an endeavour to do something.

And, realizing that Mr. Pawling has taken a firm stand in the welfare of Wainwright generally, the people will expect him to carry out his pre-election promises. Failing to make this effort, the inference must be drawn, as expressed through these columns on a previous occasion, that these promises were made after the nature of political bribes.

Mr. Pawling's past record, however, does not show that he would even attempt such a bluff as this. In order to vindicate himself, it is clearly his duty to still stand by Wainwright and endeavour to carry out what he has promised. The fact that he lost out at the recent elections should make absolutely no difference.

THE petition favouring and humbly praying for a new post office building for Wainwright is now on its way to Ottawa, where it will eventually fall into the hands of Post Master General Pelletier, whose consideration will then be given the entreaty. One very gratifying thing to note in connection with the petition was the fact that it was signed by liberals and conservatives, regardless of politics. Another thing is almost certain, if the local Post Master himself and the privilege of signing it, the probability is that he would be the first to lead the list.

The chief objection that is only too apparent is the unsightly appearance of the building, its size and location on one of the most important business streets of the progressive town of Wainwright. Mails cannot be efficiently distributed GOVERNMENT OWNED POST OFFICE NEEDED account of lack of space and when it is considered that the same small building, which is built on a twenty-five foot lot, serves the purposes of a land office, the need of a new building is even more pressing. And aside from the fact that the building is too small it is argued that Wainwright has now reached a stage in its growth when a government-owned post office is really necessary.

Considering the rate at which the business at the local office has grown of late, there is no reason to believe that the petition will not receive favourable consideration.

THE demise, often experienced by country newspapers throughout the west, is spoken of in a recent issue of the Melford Moon and small towns, where newspapers are endeavouring to do them justice would do well to heed the admonition.

"The Lanigan Ledger has found the road to the journalistic bonanza, giving up the ghost last week. Nor is this the first time newspaper enterprise has worn crepe in that town. We do not like to knock a sister burg, but Lanigan has been on the toboggan for sometime and has only herself to blame. Mossbacks and tightwads never made a town yet, and any place that refuses to recognize the inestimable value of the boost and advertising the local paper gives might as well put up the shutters and go out and plant artichokes in the backyard. Businessmen who encourage the location of a newspaper and then withhold reasonable advertising support are made of pretty punk sort of clay, and are showing a gross injustice towards the energies of the editor in his behalf."

THE WORST BLACK EYE A TOWN CAN RECEIVE The stranger invariably sizes up the town by its newspaper, and the forced withdrawal of a paper from its midst is the worst kind of a black eye. Lanigan will probably wake up to a realization of the boomerang game she has been playing; but as live newspaper men steer away from dead towns, it will likely be sometime before she has a real journal to advocate her interests."

An Estimate of the Future Population of Saskatchewan and Alberta Provinces
A Canadian correspondent of an English newspaper predicts that in thirty years from the present time the provinces of Saskatchewan and Alberta will have a population of from twenty to twenty-five millions, an annual agricultural wealth of $3,500,000,000 and an output of manufactured products of $3,000,000,000 or more; one city of over two million population; two cities with populations between four hundred thousand and seven hundred thousand, three cities of from one hundred thousand to three hundred thousand, and nine cities between fifty thousand and one hundred thousand, and in addition several dozens of large towns. He bases his calculations on the growth of the Middle West of the United States within the past fifty years.

Big Immigration
At present Western Canada has an annual immigration of three hundred thousand, while the average number of people who entered the Middle West States in 1890 up to the present time has been only two hundred thousand per year; yet the Middle West States, covering an area no greater than that of the two Canadian provinces, have now a population of twenty millions. Before 1880 there was no real development in this territory, and even after that there were obstacles to its settlement and advancement which do not exist in the Canadian provinces. For the development of the West-Canada has the advantage of three transcontinental railways, facilities for obtaining a very abundant capital for productive purposes on a scale which contrasts most favorably with the conditions which obtained thirty years ago when the United States West was being developed. Besides this the markets of the world are open for the profitable disposal of everything that Canada can possibly raise, a factor which assures continued prosperity and cumulative growth.

Splendid Opportunities
Commenting upon this glowing estimate, the Vancouver Sun says: "On its face this calculation may appear exaggerated, but a little reflection will convince the most conservative mind that the picture is not overdrawn. Immigration is increasing year by year, and increasing at an astonishing rate. It is not too much to expect that within seven or eight years it will be double what it is to-day. All of this, of course, will not be taken by Saskatchewan and Alberta, but the proportion which will go to the West, and a simple arithmetical calculation will show that an estimate of twenty millions of people for the territory from Manitoba to the Pacific Coast in thirty years' time is in reality a modest one."

The West affords splendid opportunities for the Canadian manufacturer if he will only take advantage of them by establishing branch factories at strategic points. At the moment United States manufacturers are showing enterprise in that direction.

MEAT SUPPLIES

Farmers Should Go Into The Cattle Industry on a Large Scale

As an indication that the Canadian Northwest is in the same position as the east in regard to meat supplies, last year's live stock receipts at Winnipeg Stock Yards are significant. Receipts of cattle have fallen off steadily during the last five years, while prices have shown more than a relative advance, due to a growing demand. Receipts of sheep and lambs have, on the other hand, increased, and the prices paid, though considerably above those of 1911, were below those of 1910 and 1909. The run of hogs was well above that of 1911 and 1909, but less than in 1908. With the exception of 1910, prices of hogs were higher during 1912 than for a number of years. The following table brings out these facts:—

	1912	1911	1910
To cattle
Receipts	101,044	102,786	190,817
Av. pr. pd.	$5.48	$4.64	$4.66
To. val.	$7,500,000	$6,000,000	$9,500,000
To sheep
Receipts	66,041	42,614	80,775
Av. pr. pd.	$6.40	$4.89	$6.31
To. val.	$257,000	$215,000	$194,000
Total hog
Receipts	110,781	85,177	91,626
Av. pr. pd.	$8.65	$7.71	$9.08
To. val.	$1,916,000	$1,260,000

There will be a great deal of money in Canadian live stock for years to come. The farmers should go into the industry on a large scale. Their market is well protected by the Canadian customs tariff.

In the meantime, Joan had accompanied her uncle to Cowley Street, and when she entered the house that had been her home it was with a strange feeling that years had elapsed since she left—a young girl who had returned a woman with a woman's capacity for suffering.

"She was not at all comfortable in his mind, and his manner showed his discomfort; but he did not hesitate to be quite frank, and when she was over he called Joan to his study."

"Quite naturally she fell back into old ways, and she held a match to his chair while he held a match to his chair."

"I may say little Joan that has come back, he began gently."

"She did not answer save by a sigh. It was a cruel trick to play your old uncle to run away like that, the went on lightly; but quickly his voice became grave. Joan, dear, I want you to be quite frank. In the old days we had no secrets."

"Years came to Joan's eyes and her lips were tremulous."

"I never knew my mother, but I do know her, so she said, and she loved her. He cleared his throat, but to her emotion, and then placed his arm around her affectionately."

"You can trust me, dear. Is it Basil?"

"Yes, but it is so difficult to speak of it, because—"

"Because he whistled?"

"Because he whistled, said that he loves me. If only he had spoken, I should know what to do. Now I am helpless, and you can't see my helplessness slipping away without making an effort to save it."

"Perhaps I can help you, but I must say at once that I do not consider Basil Thorne a suitable husband for you, he said very gravely."

"You are prejudiced against him, like father was, said vehemently. It would be as well that I should know all that has happened."

"There was not very much to tell, and Joan spoke of the death of her father in Accra."

"Basil came to me—and then I knew that he cared. A woman who loves cannot be mistaken when her love is concerned. Although he was silent, I read in his eyes all that I longed to know. But he went away, and although I was miserable I respected him."

"I like Thorne, and if it were not for that wretched business—I mean his father—and then there was Thorne's affair. They were two black birds that make him a very undesirable husband for my little girl. I was to be quite fair and reasonable, and I said to myself to prevent you from marrying him."

"You cannot do that, she said very quietly."

"I do not think Thorne would marry you without my consent."

"Then you must believe him to be honorable and straightforward. I know him to be that, and I shall be a proud and happy woman if ever I become his wife."

"The world has not forgotten that his father committed a deliberate murder."

"Basil Thorne is my world, she cried vehemently."

"You are very young. When you are older—"

"Uncle I thought you had more sense. Do you think that I am to change easily?"

"No, and that is what troubles me. Basil is coming to you in the morning. I believe that he will bring a message from father, and that the decision will lie in your hands. That is why I wish to speak to you to-night. I want to try and make you understand what Basil means to me. If you send him away, my affection for you will turn to hate. I shall leave you—and I swear that."

"Joan! he protested."

"I swear that I will never speak to you again, she went on deliberately. It sounds as if you are threatening me."

"I never threaten, uncle, and I mean what I say. It is not only of myself that I am thinking. There is Basil. Since his father's death he has not had much happiness, and if I fall him, what has he to look forward to in the future?"

"I think I will go to bed. I am very tired; she said wearily, and he made no effort to detain her."

There never was a time when people appreciated the real merits of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy more than now. This is shown by the increase in sales and voluntary testimonials from persons who have been cured by it. If you or your children are troubled with a cough or cold, give it a trial and become acquainted with its good qualities. For sale by all dealers.

THE HOME MARKET THE BEST MARKET

A Globe Article From Its Western Correspondent Makes This Abundantly Clear

The Canadian home market is the best for most farm products because it is the most convenient and accessible. The Toronto Globe prints this story from its Calgary correspondent under a recent date:

Southern Alberta farmers have set to work in earnest to regain the hold on the British Columbia hog market that several years ago they lost. The Toronto Globe prints this story from its Calgary correspondent under a recent date:

The grain-growing prairie, in spite of gains made during the past couple of years, are yet importers rather than exporters of hogs, and the same condition exists in the States to the south. The result is that hogs are shipped into British Columbia from as far away as eastern Ontario, and the price is correspondingly high. The Lethbridge district lies at the door of the best part of this profitable market, by the Crow's Nest Pass line of the Canadian Pacific less than three hundred miles from the mining and lumbering camps, via Calgary only a little over double that distance from the coast.

Hog-raising at Lethbridge

And they certainly can raise hogs in the Lethbridge district, but they hadn't been doing it until one man threw aside time-worn prejudices. This man is Otto T. Lathrop, grain-grower, alfalfa-producer, hog-raiser and Chairman of the Agricultural Committee of the Lethbridge Board of Trade. For a long time alfalfa has been considered one of the best paying crops in the district, almost too precious to use for it sells at full average $20 per ton, and a plot in full production yields about five tons to the acre. Lathrop, however, has turned his head and has turned a herd of hogs into a fine stand of twenty-dollar alfalfa; the results are best shown by an interview given The Globe correspondent.

"We have three hundred acres seeded to alfalfa," said Mr. Lathrop, "and I can say that we are raising as fine a quality of the fodder as I have seen in the best of the States to the south of us. We are getting a first-year yield and the price for the last five years has been better than $15 per ton, but at that we can make more money feeding it to hogs than selling it. By changing them from pasture to pasture we can run 25 hogs per acre of the green feed. We are turning off an average of 1,000 hogs per year, which sell at an average price of $12 per head, ten months old. Experience has proven that it costs us $6 per head to raise a hog; this is counting full expense and interest at 8 per cent on our investment. We finish the animals with a long-grade grain. Then each hog gives us a net profit of $12, and our alfalfa land is giving us a net income of $300 per acre per year."

Profits to the Farmers

No sooner had Mr. Lathrop satisfied himself of the profit in his system of raising swine than he started spreading among his neighbors the doctrine of combining hogs with alfalfa. And when he got them enthusiastic he sought and found the most profitable market. The result is that early this month he concluded arrangements to furnish a British Columbia packing plant with two carloads, 120 hogs per week the year round from the Lethbridge district. Figuring these hogs worth $17 per head on cars Lethbridge, these shipments, which are only a start toward larger things, will return the farmers of the district over $120,000 per year.

HELPS FARM PRODUCE

The strides that Ontario has made in the automobile industry in the past eight years were remarkably in evidence at the Motor Show recently held in Toronto. When the first auto show was held in 1905 there was scarcely a town outside of Toronto that had an automobile industry of any sort, either for the manufacture of cars or accessories. Now, in the eighth year, there are large manufacturing plants in Brantford, Orillia, Brockville, Ottawa, Windsor, St. Catharines, Berlin, Amherstburg, Petrolia, London, Oshawa, Bowmanville, Ingersoll, Guelph, Galt, Walkerville and Kingston. Every one of these industrial centres provides a healthy market for the farm produce of the contiguous country.
